Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to inform you that, to complement your son's studies in English this half-term, he will be participating in a series of workshops in partnership with Lauderdale House and award-winning poet Anthony Anaxagorou. The project aim is to explore the theme of identity through poetry, focusing specifically on students writing poems to celebrate their own identity and individuality and culminating in public performances of the poems written by the students at Lauderdale House on Friday 14th December, 2018 at 4pm.

All students in the class are expected to participate in the final performance. The class will be leaving from school at 2.15pm (during Period 5) and the event will be finishing at approximately 5pm. We will be travelling to Lauderdale House on foot and students will be dismissed from the house at the end of the performances. Parents and carers are invited attend the performance from 4-5pm – please indicate on the consent slip below if and how many seats you'd like to be reserved.
