6th November 2018

Dear Parents/Carers,

Wellcome Collection Study Day - Tuesday, 20th November 2018

Your son/daughter has been selected to attend a special study day called 'Design for Life' as part of their graphic design course at the Wellcome Collection in Euston on Tuesday, 20th November.

The Wellcome Collection is one of London's most prestigious cultural organisations with which William Ellis currently has a special partnership with the Wellcome Collection.

The study day will give the students insight into the professional practice of graphic designers through hands-on activities, discussion and time in the permanent galleries of the collection.

On the day your son/daughter should arrive at school at the normal time in full uniform (Year 10) as usual. We will be returning to school before the end of the school day.

We will be travelling to Euston by bus and free travel will be provided. Your son/daughter will also need a packed lunch unless they are entitled to free school meals in which case a lunch will be provided for them.

Yours sincerely,

Claire Ozkaya

Development Officer
